

ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

Sec. 50-1. Obstructing view at intersections.

No person shall plant any hedge, tree, shrub or growth of a height greater than three feet above the level of the crown of the roadway or maintain or permit the growth or existence of any hedge, tree, shrub or other structure to a height greater than three feet above the level of the crown of the roadway, upon any property owned by him or under his control, wherever such property is bounded on two adjacent sides by public rights-of-way for street, alley or other public passageway. The area restricted by this section shall be the area of the corner or corners of such property, more particularly described as being that area bounded by two intersecting boundaries of the public rights-of-way for a distance of 15 feet of each of such boundaries from the point of intersection, and bounded by a third side determined by the drawing of a straight line from the points on the two intersecting boundaries 15 feet from their intersection; provided, however, that the existence of a tree shall not be unlawful so long as such tree is free of branches and foliage for a height of at least seven feet above the level of the crown of the roadway; and provided further that the provisions of this section shall apply to all use districts.

(Code 1986, § 13-17)

Sec. 70-1. Clearance for roads and alleys.

Sec. 70-1. Clearance for roads and alleys.

No tree limbs, signs, building or other item may hang over roads or alleys at a height of less than 14 feet.
